

BIOGRAPHICAL DETAILS

BRYAN CASSIDY

Bryan Cassidy started his working life in advertising. He then went on to a successful career in international business.

He was elected to the European Parliament in 1984 and served until 1999 concentrating on Single Market issues. He was a member of the Parliament's Legal Affairs Committee and of its Economic and Monetary Affairs Committee.

He is now a member of the European Economic and Social Committee in Brussels which advises the European Commission and Council of Ministers. He chairs the Committee's Section for the Single Market, Production and Consumption.

He is a visiting Woodrow Wilson Fellow at American colleges and works with the French business school ESSEC (Ecole Supérieure des Sciences Economiques et Commerciales)

His consultancy, Cassidy & Associates International, specialises in EU affairs (www.europundit.europa.eu).