

Comité économique et social européen
Groupe des travailleurs

INVITATION

The European Economic and Social Committee and the Workers' Group have the pleasure to invite you to the presentation of the book

«Le dialogue social européen: Histoire d'une innovation sociale (1985/2003)»

Author: Jean Lapeyre

Thursday 7 December 2017 | 15h00 | VMA 3

PROGRAMME

Presentation of the book

Jean Lapeyre, Former ETUC Deputy General Secretary

Contributions

Philippe de Buck, Member of the Employers' Group of the EESC

John Monks, Former ETUC General Secretary

Cándido Méndez, Former General Secretary of the UGT and former ETUC President

Georges Dassis, EESC President

What future for social dialogue in the EU Key instrument for social innovation?

Panel debate

Luc Triangle, IndustriAll General Secretary

Marie-Hélène Ska, CSC General Secretary

Peter Scherrer, ETUC Deputy General Secretary

Moderator

Gabriele Bischoff, President of the EESC Workers' Group

Many other friends have been invited and will take part in the debate.

A drink will be offered at the end of the event.

Set up in 1985 at the initiative of Commission President Jacques Delors, the Val Duchesse social dialogue process aimed to involve the social partners, represented by the European Trade Union Confederation (ETUC), the Union of Industries of the European Community (UNICE) and the European Centre of Public Enterprises (CEEP) in the internal market process.

Registration: <http://cdweb.eesc.europa.eu/cn/ae77k/lapeyre>

Working languages: FR/EN/ES active and IT/DE passive