2017 Euro-Mediterranean Summit of Economic and Social Councils
and Similar Institutions
Madrid-Spain, 13 & 14 December 2017

SHORT DESCRIPTION

Background and objectives

The Euro-Mediterranean Summit of Economic and Social Councils and Similar Institutions aims at promoting greater understanding of the main issues affecting organised civil society in the Euromed region and at discussing the common challenges they face.

These Summits bring together some 120 participants from a range of economic and social councils, or similar institutions, representatives of employers, trade unions, other economic and social interests groups and NGOs from countries which are members of the Union for the Mediterranean.

This year, the exchange will focus on the following topics:

- Economic, Social and Cultural rights in the Mediterranean region
- A Social protection floor in the Euromediterranean Area
- A new generation of women's rights

As on previous occasions, the meeting will conclude with the adoption of a final declaration that will be sent to the political authorities of the countries involved in the Euromed Ministerial Summits as civil society's contribution to their work, and disseminated widely amongst civil society organisations in the region.

In accordance with the decision taken at the Euro-Mediterranean Ministerial Conference in Barcelona in November 1995, the Economic and Social Councils and Similar Institutions of the European Union and the Euromed partner countries have regularly held Summits since 1995.

The 2017 Euro-Mediterranean Summit is organised by the European Economic and Social Committee (EESC) and the Economic and Social Council of Spain. The event is co-financed by the European Commission.
