is hereby authorised to participate in the "Your Europe, Your Say" event that will take place in Brussels, 26-28 April 2012.

The European Economic and Social Committee will arrange and pay accommodation in Brussels, as well as travel expenses for the international airplane/train connection from the home country to Brussels and back (including connecting flights/long distance connecting trains if needed). It will furthermore pay the transport between Brussels airport or railway station and its premises and between the hotel and its premises. It will not pay any domestic transport in the home country; this means that travel to/from the departure airport/station in the home country will not be reimbursed. The accompanying teacher will bear full responsibility for the student during the journey and stay in Brussels.

The European Economic and Social Committee will provide accident, civil responsibility and repatriation insurance during the stay in Brussels. It will not take responsibility for any damage or theft of personal belongings.

The student will take the necessary travel documents (i.e. valid passport or identity card) and his/her European health insurance card (available free from local insurance organisations and/or sickness funds), or a provisional replacement certificate if the card cannot be issued in time.
